Let Your Constituents Know How to Join You at Events

Your constituents want to know when you're in town so they can see you in person.

Event calls invite constituents to events and generate fast "counts" of attendees. The calls work on short notice. For a town hall, a speech, an issue forum, or wherever you want your constituents to join you in person, Spoken Hub can alert them so they know about the event: when to go, why to go, and especially where to go.

Benefits

- Act Quickly. We will deliver an auto call within hours so you can invite the public on one or two days' notice.
- Let Them Hear It From You. Auto calls allow you to send an invitation in your own voice.
- Plan Ahead. Event calls allow your audience to respond to let you know if they are coming.
- Communicate Urgent Updates. When event plans evolve and venues or start-times change, an auto call is an ideal way to provide constituents with timely new information.
